Introduction

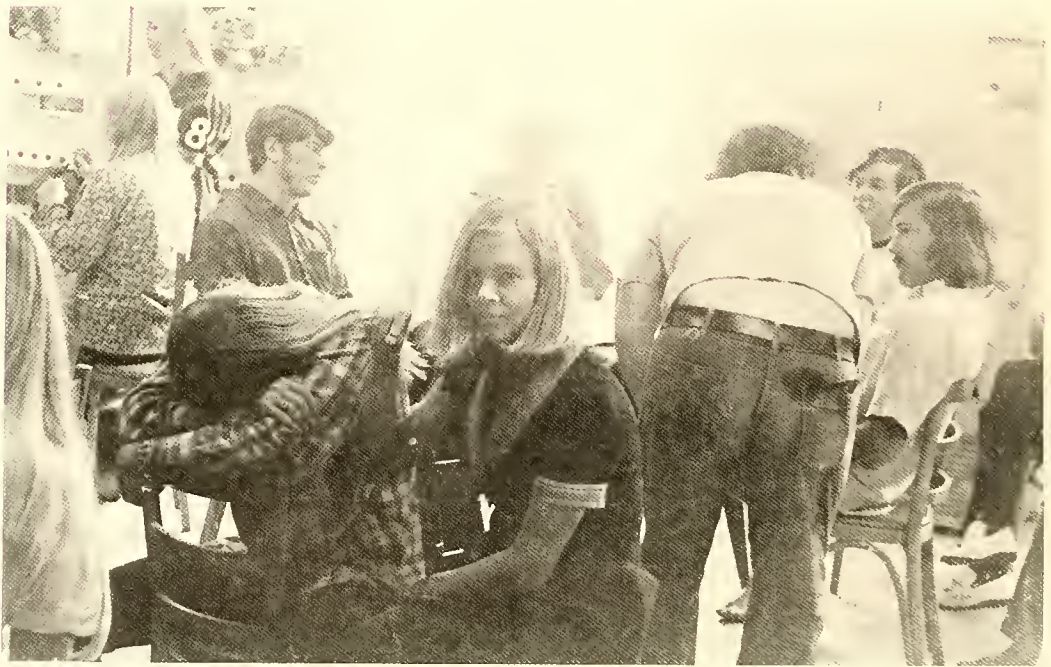

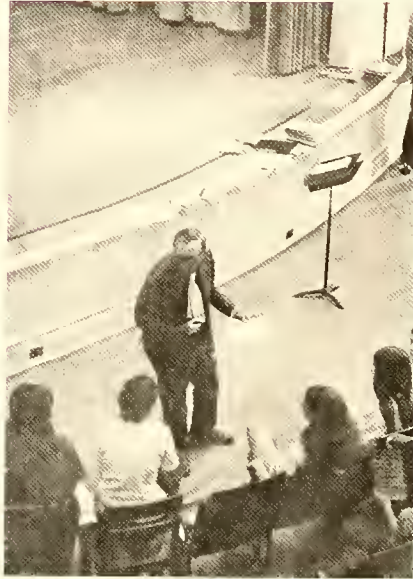

Life Is A Circle

*If Life is a Circle then . . .
Someday, sometime,
I like to think I shall go back To all the places I have loved.*

*To climb the mountain sides,
To camp far back in virgin woods,
And sit around a blazing fire at night,
With moonlight hanging in the pines.*

*To sleep again on sweet pine boughs,
To hear through the peaceful night
The music of a stream close by,
Or of a distant waterfall.*

*Someday, sometime, I shall go back Because a little part of me
Is left behind in places I have loved,
And so I like to think I shall go back . . .
Someday, sometime.*

*Life is a restless moving sphere.
My grief, my joy, my hope, my love —
All within this circle move.
Like stellar orbits our lives are the same As we go around, and around, and around
... in the circle game.*

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, Perhaps it is because he marches to the sound of a different drummer—However measured or far away.

—Henry David Thoreau

"the only gift is a portion of thyself" the on-the-job learning. The

It is usually the case that financial reasons are secondary to the educational advantages of a job

The Road Not Taken

*Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood And looked down one as far as I could To where it bent in the undergrowth;*

*Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for the passing there Had worn them really about the same,*

*And both that morning equally lay In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.*

*I shall be telling this with a sigh Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.*

Robert Frost

Life is a circle . . . never ending nor beginning it's an ever spinning wheel. In the circles of these pages we have attempted to capture the memories of the joy in our laughter, and warmth of a friend's smile; the reflections of routine events and fragments of experience that have shaped our lives, and the traces of broken dreams and sudden departures without saying good-bye.

When the reality of life's circle of '72 has slowly faded and merely become an integral part of the mirage of the memories of the past and the echo of the sound of yesterday, our hope is that these images will enable us to experience again the reality of the circle of '72.

I want to express my deep appreciation to Mrs. Jane Chilton and each member of my staff for their time and assistance in making this yearbook possible.

*I believe for every drop of rain — a flower grows
At each day's end, God's gift is calm repose.
For this day alone to it's tasks I can stand . . .
Meet with hope, faith, and courage the moment's demand,
Be it laughter, anxiety, love, or grief
Yet most of all my firmest belief . . .
To the '72 Circle editor that God is co-chief.*
